Food Bank of Siouxland is now taking Food Donations for Pets!

Local shelters are seeing a rise in animals being dropped off because owners are having trouble putting food in "Fluffy or Fido's" bowl. To help families keep their pets through the rough patch, the Food Bank of Siouxland is now accepting donations for pet food. If you would like to make a pet food donation, Downtown Partners at 418 Pierce Street is proud to be a drop location for accepting pet food only.

Shot in the Dark presents Tony Award-winning 'Art'

'Art,' successively a hit on the Paris, London, and Broadway stages, is a comedy that raises questions about art and friendship, concerns three long-time friends: Serge, Marc, and Yvan. The curtain goes up at 8.00 pm at the Evelyn Larson Theatre, 413 Nebraska Street in Downtown Sioux City. 'Art' will continue for three weekends; show dates are November 7, 13-14 and 21-22. This is the first time where patrons can purchase advance tickets before each show. Tickets for all performances go on sale November 6 at the theater. Call 712-389-0701 or visit www.shotprod.org for more details. Tickets are $10 per person, $18 per couple and $6 for students.

You are cordially invited to an evening of "Art", art, and wine on Friday evening, November 13. The Evelyn Larson Theater, home of Shot in the Dark Productions, welcomes you to an exhibit of works in watercolor by Cindy Waitt. From 6:30 - 7:30, WineStyles in Lakeport Commons will present a tasting of interesting wines from around the world. At 8:00, Shot in the Dark Productions will present 'Art', the international hit by Yasmina Reza. The wine tasting is free of charge with your tickets to the show!

Farmers Market Update

The Farmers Market is over for the season, and what a great season it was. The vendors of the Market would like to thank all the downtown patrons who shopped there this summer. Plans are already in the works for next year to make it even better than this year. Don't forget to check out the web site: www.farmersmarketsiouxcity.com during the winter to see what is in store for next year. And watch for the debut of the "Friends of the Market" Market Support Group coming soon!

The Holiday Spirit arrives in Downtown

Downtown will kick off the Holidays on Monday, November 23rd with the annual Holiday Lighted Parade with special guest, Santa! The parade begins at 6:15pm and will proceed along 4th Street from Water to the Promenade where Santa will "light up the city". Entertainment from the North High Chorale will begin at 6pm around the Roth Fountain as we await the arrival of Santa.

Santa's House and Festival of Trees will celebrate their opening nights in conjunction with the parade. Festival of Trees will be in the atrium of the Terra Centre and will begin at 6:30pm. Santa's House will be on the corner of 4th & Pierce in the HOM Furniture Building. They will begin welcoming children at 6pm. More information will be available online next week at www.downtownsiouxcity.com or look for information coming in The Weekender on November 19th.
